“Back to School Picnic”
Santa Ana Zoo
August 25th 2006
(Friday)
10:00 am – 3:00 pm

The Child Abuse Prevention Center is hosting the 3rd annual “Back to School” picnic. Our goal is to serve 1,000 children and families this year and provide them with the tools necessary to succeed in school. In order to make this year’s “Back to School” picnic a success, we are requesting your help with the following items:

- Back packs
- School Uniforms
- School supplies (notebooks, paper, pencils, pens, rulers, etc)
- Gift cards for school clothes (Target, Mervyns, etc.)
- Hygiene products (shampoo, conditioner, toothpaste, toothbrush, etc.)
- Books (new or used)

To be a strong voice for a family at the Child Abuse Prevention Center, here are other ways you can help.

- Have a “Back to School” drive yourself and help collect school supplies for our children at the Center.
- Volunteer your time to assist with the picnic at Santa Ana Zoo.

Deadline for donations is Wednesday August 16th. For more information about donating or to volunteer your time, please contact
