SUE O'SHEA TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SANTA ANA, Calif., (June 16, 2004) The Orange County Child Abuse Prevention Center ("Prevention Center") is pleased to announce it has appointed Sue O'Shea to its Board of Directors.

O'Shea, director of sales and marketing for the Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim, will serve a two-year term with the Prevention Center, the county's largest non-profit provider of child abuse prevention programs. In the last 20 years, the Prevention Center has served more than 136,000 residents through programs and services designed to break the generational cycle of child abuse, domestic violence and teen pregnancy in Orange County.

According to Kathy McCarrell, executive director of the Prevention Center, O'Shea is a dynamic addition to an already thriving group. "The business acumen and practical experience that Sue brings to the Board will take us into the next 20 years," said McCarrell. "We are fortunate to work with such high-caliber, goodhearted people committed to this critical cause."
