

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Child Abuse Prevention Center's annual Bright Futures Celebration unites Orange County business and community leaders for an evening of entertainment and giving. Over the past 14 years, over 3,000 guests have participated in our Celebrations and helped us raise critical funds to help our children.

This year's Celebration is hosted at the beautiful St. Regis Monarch Beach on Saturday, May 12th. Our newest most energetic Board Member, Maria Elena Banks, along with the Celebration committee, are determined to make this year's event unforgettable.

This Celebration is designed for you to Escape to Wine Country. Guests will be greeted with a glass of their favorite wine along with many hors d'oeuvres and enjoy dinner, while "The Band" provides musical entertainment throughout the evening. After a great dinner in the gorgeous ball room, guests will then enjoy a fun filled silent auction followed by an awards ceremony and dancing.

THE NEED FOR SUPPORT

The Child Abuse Prevention Center is dedicated to serving at-risk children and families with programs that prevent and break the generational cycle of child abuse, teen pregnancy and family violence.

- In 2010, 34,948 instances of child abuse were reported to Orange County authorities
- More than 30% of all abused & neglected children will eventually abuse their own children
- Last year, we helped 15,000 children, 3,000 parents and 2,500 families break that cycle
- Since our founding in 1983, we have served more than 219,000 Orange County children
- 90 cents of every dollar donated goes directly to fund our programs
