

12th Annual Charity Golf Classic Raises $100K for Child Abuse Prevention -Annual Tournament Rallies Orange County Business Leaders to Help Kids-

ORANGE, Calif. (August 27, 2013)—The Orange County Child Abuse Prevention Center today announced the success of the 12th Annual Charity Golf Classic at El Niguel Country Club in Laguna Niguel.

“This was a remarkable year for the Charity Golf Classic thanks to the generosity of Orange County’s prominent business leaders,” said Scott Trotter, Executive Director of the Orange County Child Abuse Prevention Center. “It is because of supporters like Wells Fargo, John Jory Corporation, Northwestern Mutual, Howard Building Corporation and all who attended that our programs can continue protecting the kids in our community.”

Golfers enjoyed a day on the 18-hole championship course at El Niguel Country Club, complete with refreshments from Chili’s, Mike’s Hard Lemonade, Guinness, and Infinium Spirits along with an elegant dinner at the clubhouse. The top prizes of the evening included a trip to Maui and a chance to play in the famed Lexus Champions for Charity Golf Tournament at Pebble Beach. Tournament sponsors include Wells Fargo, Northwestern Mutual, Newport Lexus, Howard Building Corporation, Oracle, Emcor, American Security Bank, GPS Painting, Holbrook, Nazzareno Electric, Control Air Conditioning Corporation, Interior Office Solutions, and Union Bank.

Over the past 12 years, the Charity Golf Classic has raised more than half a million dollars for child abuse prevention programs.

About The Child Abuse Prevention Center

The Child Abuse Prevention Center is dedicated to serving at-risk children and families in crisis. As Orange County’s leading not-for-profit organization focused exclusively on the prevention of child abuse, the early intervention programs of the Prevention Center have a well-documented record of working to prevent child abuse before it occurs.
